5 responses

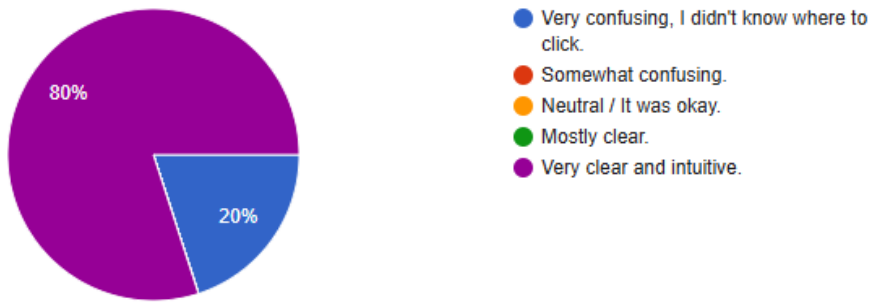
Link to Sheets

Summary | Question | Individual

When you first landed on the login screens, how clear was it to get started as a driver vs. a rider?

Copy chart

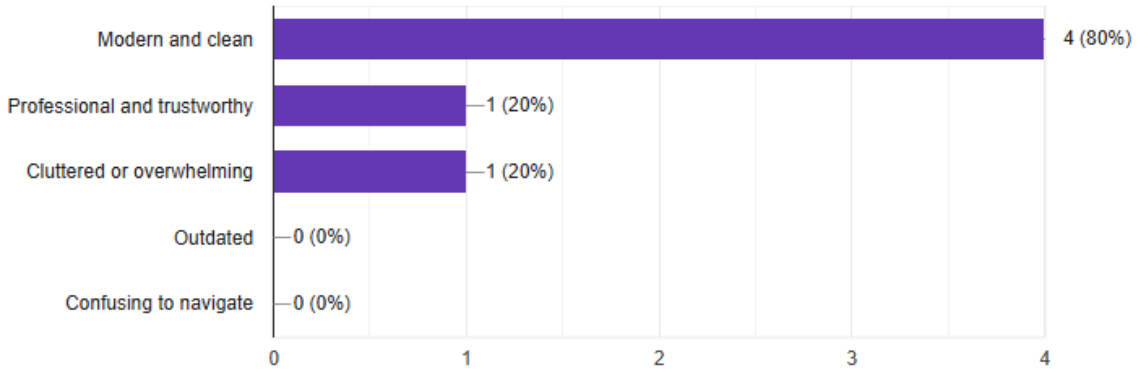
5 responses



Which words best describe your initial reaction to the app's design and layout?

Copy chart

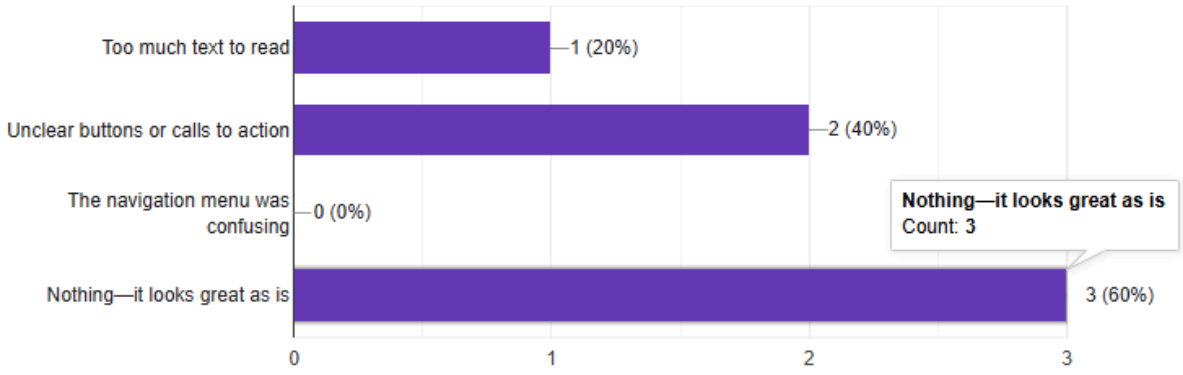
5 responses



Was there anything on the initial landing page that felt unnecessary or distracting?

Copy chart

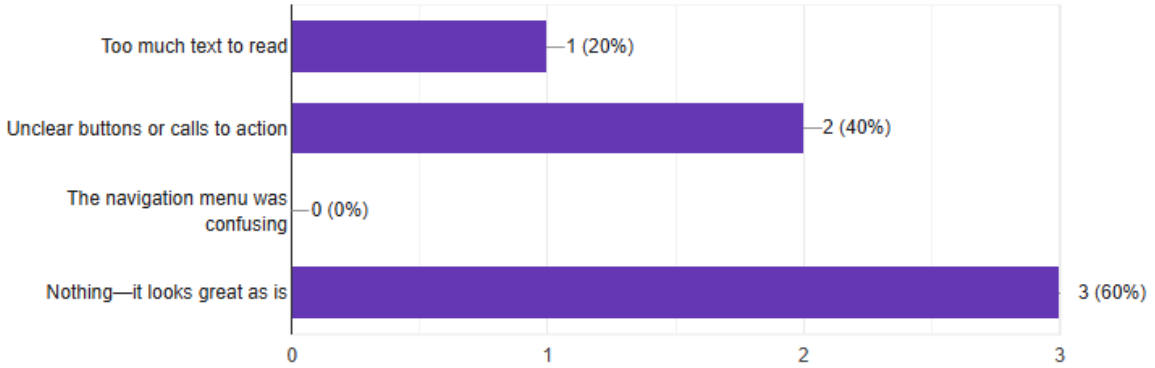
5 responses



Was there anything on the initial landing page that felt unnecessary or distracting?

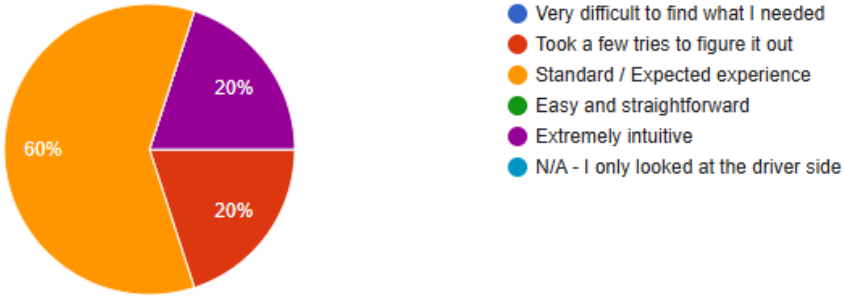
Copy chart

5 responses



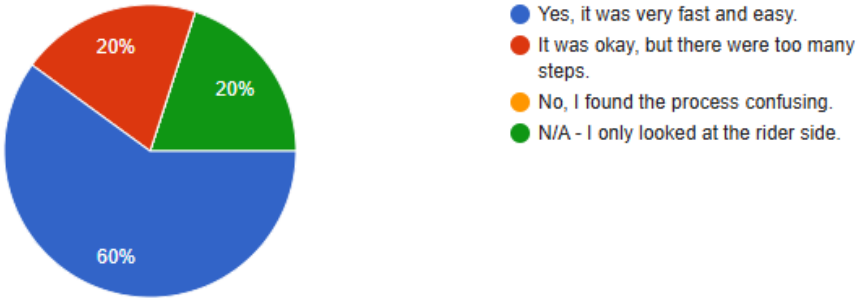
How intuitive was the process of searching for a ride to get to a morning lecture? Copy chart

5 responses



If you were driving to campus, did the prototype make it simple to post your available seats? Copy chart

5 responses



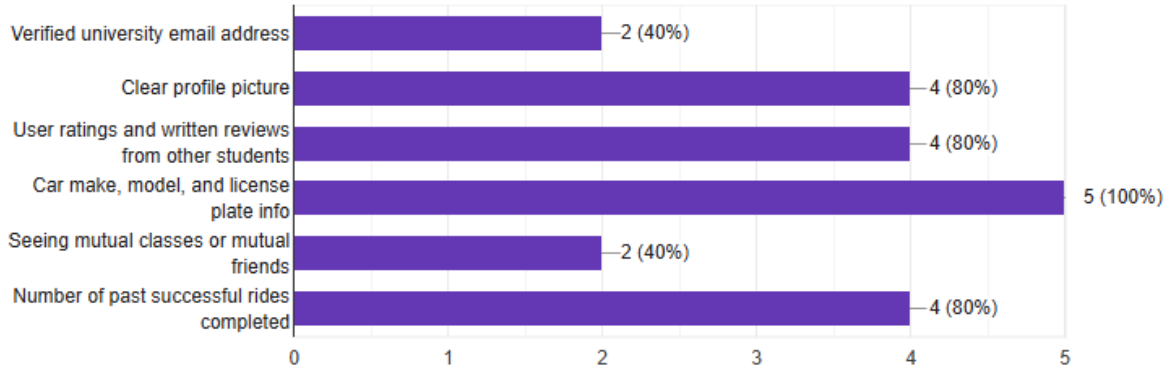
When testing the booking flow, did you feel like you had enough control over the pickup and drop-off locations? Copy chart

5 responses

What specific details on a user's profile would make you feel secure about sharing a ride with them?

Copy chart

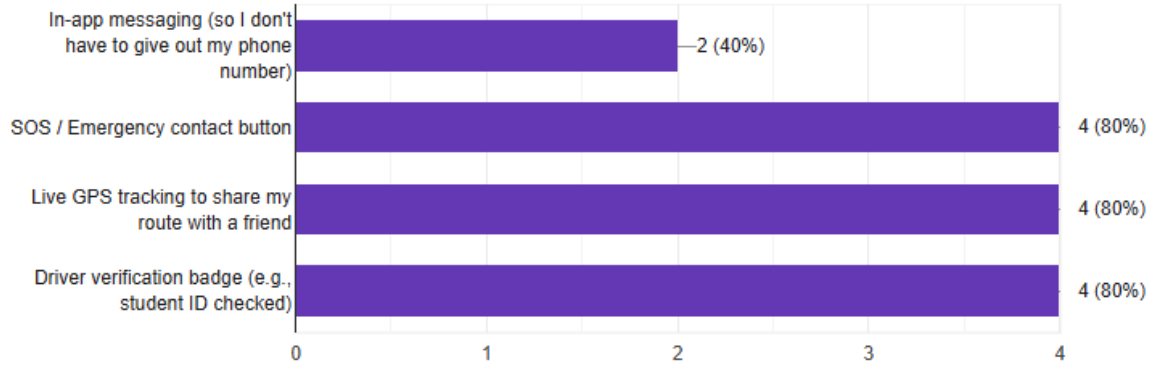
5 responses



Which safety or communication features do you consider an absolute "must-have" before using this app?

Copy chart

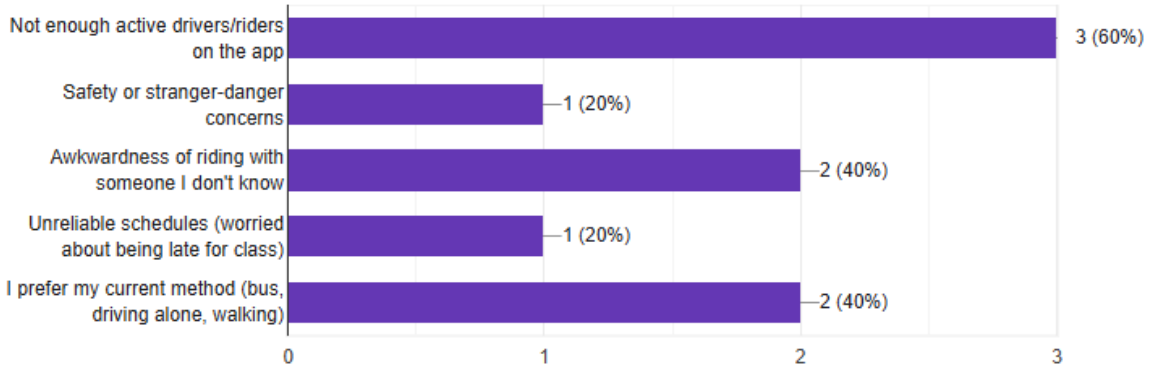
5 responses



Be completely honest: what would be the biggest barrier preventing you from actually using this app to get to the U of R campus?

Copy chart

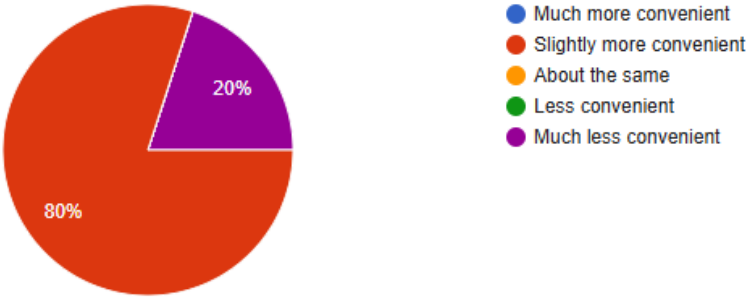
5 responses



Compared to your current method of commuting, how convenient does this app feel?

Copy chart

5 responses



Any other suggestions?

2 responses

Add being able to see mutual classes or mutual friends, I think it'll make the app more popular

A safety feature that has a time stamp that messages user if they made it there safe, if no reply, it could trigger SOS.. as an option for a user.. not manditory

Link to User Questionnaire:
https://forms.gle/y96afRPvdoAuFwwa6